1. About 5 p.m. on 24 August 1951, a paddle steamer, coming from the south anchored near the village of Neu Glietzen (52°05'N/14°16'E). The steamer had [redacted] Boxes, about 20 x 60 x 80 cm, were loaded from the steamer into a tender, carried ashore and transloaded on Soviet motor trucks. [redacted] the boxes, which appeared to be very heavy, contained ammunition. Between 5 p.m. and 6.30 p.m. four trucks were seen loaded with such boxes. [redacted] 25X

2. Inhabitants of the villages of Neu Glietzen and Neu Manft (52°48'N/14°09'E) stated that similar unloadings have frequently been observed. 25X

Comment. It is believed that this paddle steamer belonged to the Soviet Odor Shipping Company. It is noteworthy that the vessel came from the south, thus indicating that the supply shipment did not arrive by sea. 25X 25X
